*They were all filled with the Holy Spirit.
(Acts 2:4)*

Before Jesus ascended into heaven, he told the apostles that they would be “baptized with the holy Spirit” (Acts 1:5). So together with Mary, they “devoted themselves with one accord to prayer” (1:14). And sure enough, the Holy Spirit came—with wind and fire and with a new boldness to preach the gospel.

Pentecost tells a beautiful story about God’s power and the apostles’ transformation. But they didn’t receive the Spirit just that one day. They were immersed in the Spirit again and again. The Book of Acts records at least seven times that the apostles were “filled” with the Spirit (Acts 2:4; 4:8, 31; 6:8; 7:55; 13:9, 52). And this doesn’t count all the other times that never made it into the Bible!

The same is true for us. Although we received the Holy Spirit in Baptism, we too need more of the Spirit’s power and gifts to follow the Lord and proclaim the good news.

Jesus knew how much we would need the Holy Spirit, and so even long before his Ascension, he encouraged his disciples to pray for this gift: “If you . . . know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit?” (Luke 11:13). And John’s Gospel assures us that God “does not ration his gift of the Spirit” (3:34). There is always more that God has for us!

Today, follow the apostles’ example. Believe in God’s promise of the Spirit and then pray for it. Keep praying, not just on this special feast, but every day. You might even ask a few faith-filled friends to pray with you for a new outpouring of the Spirit in your life. You may not see wind or fire, but the Spirit will come to you in new, unexpected, and even extraordinary ways—not only for your benefit, but for the good of his body, the Church!

*“Holy Spirit, make your home in my heart,
today and every day.”*

Dear All Saints' Parishioners:

Since The Canadian Mental Health Association marks May 4-10 as Mental Health Week, we would like to add to the Archdiocese of Toronto Catholic Family Services that we shared last week, by listing additional services available to our community in Etobicoke Centre offered by the City of Toronto, the Province of Ontario, and The Government of Canada.

The Government of Canada has just launched Wellness Together Canada: for Mental Health and Substance Use Support to assist us with isolation, financial and employment uncertainty and disruptions to daily life. The tools and resources provided include modules for addressing low mood, worry, substance use, social isolation and relationship issues.

At <https://ca.portal.gs/> you will be invited to 'Get Started' by creating an account. You have the option of completing a wellness self-assessment, and then choosing from the full range of no cost options for support. Without an account you can access immediate support by texting WELLNESS to 741741.

Let us begin to take care of our mental health.

ShareLife

During the last two months, the COVID-19 pandemic has created severe hardship and suffering for people throughout the world. Our own parish has not been spared. This virus has isolated us from our own families, our community and from our church and its sacraments. The distress and pain that is being felt by members of our own parish and our larger community is real; now more than ever these people need our help.

During these unprecedented times, ShareLife continues to be the life line for teens who have taken to the streets, unwed mothers who have no one to turn to and seniors who live in loneliness. Indeed, ShareLife is a lifeline to many others as well.

God has not abandoned us and we will not abandon those who are in desperate need. We are all in this together and together, with God's guidance and grace, we can help those who are most vulnerable.

If you are in a position to offer assistance during this difficult time, please consider an offering to ShareLife. You can donate:

By cheque made payable to "ShareLife – All Saints' Parish" which you can drop in the new Parish mailbox slot
OR Online at

<https://www.sharelife.org/public/donate> (Please select All Saints' Parish, Etobicoke in the donation information Parish drop-down box).

Thank you for your consideration.
