My persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph. (Jeremiah 20:11)

Jeremiah was not having a good week. He had been arrested, beaten, and thrown into prison. Then, having been released, he pronounces an oracle of destruction against Jerusalem and offers a bitter prayer accusing the Lord of “seducing” him into this dangerous ministry. And he prays for the chance to see his enemies’ downfall—and to savor it!

Today’s reading is not what Jesus had in mind when he said, “Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you”. We have only to think of Jesus’ words of forgiveness on the cross to see how he really wants his people to respond to persecution and enmity.

It’s comforting to know that even a great prophet like Jeremiah had bad days. It gives us some perspective on our own lives. Who among us hasn’t wished vengeance on someone who has hurt us? We know we shouldn’t, we know it’s wrong, but sometimes we find it very hard to resist the pull toward resentment and revenge.

The truth is, change takes time, and we have to keep working at it. We have to keep checking our thoughts, examining our motives, and holding our tongues until we develop the virtues that mirror Jesus’ perfect, unconditional love. We also have to keep pressing in to stay close to the Lord so that his love continues to shape our hearts.

But remember this: you are not alone! You are part of a Church filled with saints, both famous and obscure, who show that change is possible. You also have friends you can turn to for support when you need it. And most important—and most reassuring—you have the Holy Spirit, who is always ready to remind you of Jesus’ love and to give you his grace and encouragement.

Jeremiah had far more good days than bad days because he never gave up. Neither should we.

“Lord, teach me how to love everyone, even the people who are making my life difficult.”

Sunday, Daily Masses & Eucharistic Adoration

The live streaming of the Sunday Mass this Sunday June 21 will be at 11:30 am on YouTube.

If you cannot access it, you should be able to find the video on our channel at the following link:

https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCqCsT_qIZXIPMc8QzUpWH8Q/videos or by clicking: All Saints Parish-Etobicoke \(YouTube Channel\).

We will not have the live streaming of the daily Mass at 8:15am from now on starting this week June 22.

We are opening the Church to have the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Friday, starting from 3 to 6pm.

The parishioners of All Saints have always been so generous with their contributions not only to ShareLife but with other initiatives as well. Even though we are in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic, the giving spirit at our Church has not been dampened. The ShareLife 2020 committee is pleased to announce that we have raised $45,000 thus far. Again, thank you for your support.

This is a great beginning and yet we still have a ways to go toward reaching our goal of $132,500. The people who depend on ShareLife both within and outside our parish need our support – perhaps now during this unprecedented time more than ever.

If you are in a position to offer assistance during this difficult time, please consider an offering to ShareLife. You can donate:

By cheque made payable to “ShareLife – All Saints’ Parish” which you can drop in the new Parish mailbox slot OR Online at <https://www.sharelife.org/public/donate> (Please select All Saints’ Parish, Etobicoke in the donation information Parish drop-down box)

Thank you for your consideration.

"How to Return to Mass" Video

The Office of Public Relations & Communications has produced a video that explains the temporary changes to the Mass that are being implemented in response to COVID-19.

It is hoped this video will inform parishioners of our Worship-Safe protocols before they leave for church, thus reducing the number of questions directed to the parishes and improving the flow of worship when Mass resumes.

You can watch the video here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_z-NirNbHVE&feature=youtu.be
