*He . . . handed him over for us all.
(Romans 8:32)*

Yes, God loved us so much that he did not spare his Son. But what St. Paul doesn't mention in today's passage is how persistent God was in handing Jesus over to us. Neither does Paul talk about how resistant we can be to this great gift.

At Christmas, God handed over his Son to us as a gift of peace. Mary and Joseph welcomed him openly, and a few shepherds embraced him, but the rest of the world seemed pitted against him. Even Herod and all Jerusalem feared him and trembled at the news of his birth (Matthew 2:3).

Then the Father handed Jesus over to us as a gift of wisdom: "This is my beloved Son," he proclaimed (Matthew 3:17). He sent him to teach us how to live in love with him and each other. But rather than receive Jesus humbly, we questioned his every motive and were hard of heart and slow to believe.

On the Mount of Transfiguration, God offered Jesus as a gift of glory: "This is my beloved Son," he said yet again, adding an impassioned plea: "Listen to him" (Mark 9:7). Still, even Peter misunderstood the gift. He sought to capture Jesus' glory as a static memorial rather than a living presence.

God even used Pilate to hand Jesus over to us, this time as a gift of sacrifice: "Behold, the man! . . . Take him yourselves and crucify him!" Pilate cried. He didn't even know that he was helping fulfill Jesus' mission. But again we rejected the gift: "Take him away!" we replied (John 19:5, 6, 15).

On Easter Sunday, God gave Jesus to us again, this time as a gift of forgiveness and redemption. And every day since then, he continues to offer Jesus to us in the humble form of bread and wine: "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world."

Jesus is here. Accept him. Let him change your heart.

"Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but you still offer yourself to me. Help me to embrace you so that my soul may be healed."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

If you need examples of persons responding to God's call, look at Abraham and Sarah - called in old age to leave their country and have a child. Then Abraham was asked to sacrifice that child. What faith! Answering God's call to be a priest, brother, sister or deacon is also taking a great risk. If you are willing, and think God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact: Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

A 40 DAY JOURNEY OF LENT AS A COMMUNITY

Lent is a time of prayer, penance and sacrifice, a time for the entire family to be more attentive to the words of Jesus and to each other. It is a time to try harder to put Christ's teachings into practice. It is a 40-day journey with Jesus. Lent means doing something as well as giving up something. Let us journey through these 40 days together by doing something.

Visit our Parish Blog at <https://allsaintset.archtoronto.org/> every day during Lent, to find daily prayers, good deeds and formational videos for the entire family. Let us take the challenge to draw closer to God together during this Lenten season.

St. Augustine's Seminary Lay Formation Program: The Holy Spirit and the Abandonment of the Saints Saturday, March 13 – 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

A VIRTUAL EVENT

The transformation of Christian life is accomplished by the Holy Spirit and the saints conform to the Holy Spirit through abandonment or surrender. This retreat will explore the thought of Jean-Pierre de Caussade who unveils the secret of how saints encounter God by surrendering to His action in each present moment. This abandonment is at the heart of the Holy Family at Nazareth and far outstrips even the asceticism of John the Baptist in the desert. Presented by Rev. Charles Anang. COST: $25. PHONE: 416-261-7207
