*Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets!
(Numbers 11:29)*

It wasn't about him. Moses was very clear about that fact. When Eldad and Medad received God's spirit and prophesied, even though they were not gathered with him at the tent of meeting, Moses was not diminished in any way.

Why not? Because the initiative and the spirit came from God, not from Moses. It was not Moses who would be glorified by the spiritual gifts poured out on the elders; it was the Lord. As he himself said, he'd be happy if all God's people were prophets! He would be delighted if they all knew the Lord as intimately as he did and spoke his word as freely. Like Joshua, though, we sometimes want to make a script for how God can work in people's lives. Moses teaches us to be open when the Lord works in unexpected ways.

Jesus had a similar response to his disciples in today's Gospel. When they complained that someone who didn't follow them was casting out demons in his name, Jesus told them not to worry. God was working through that person too. Again, like the disciples, we might think that things should be done a certain way. Then we feel threatened when people don't follow our "script." But as Jesus said, "Whoever is not against us is for us" (Mark 9:40). He was trying to broaden the disciples' view so that they could be free to recognize and follow the working of his Spirit in the future. That attitude became extremely important when Gentiles started believing in Jesus.

God sometimes looks at things differently than we do. We might be weighed down by a reluctance to change or a dislike of the unexpected. But God wants to work in the lives of his people, and he is so eager to pour out his Spirit that he won't always follow our script. He challenges our narrow viewpoint. And that can be a really good thing!

"Lord, broaden my expectations of how you might work today."

ShareLife

ShareLife Sunday is next weekend

Your gift to ShareLife facilitated the arrival of 528 refugees through the Office of Refugees of the Archdiocese of Toronto last year. They are among the 150,000 people helped by generous donors like you.

As we emerge from the pandemic, let's not forget the plight of those facing hardship and persecution, and continue our efforts to welcome them to Canada.

Next Sunday, October 3 is the next ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously during the special collection or anytime at www.sharelife.org.

We have raised $109,601.00 thus far, our goal is to raise $132,500.00. We thank you for your generosity.

Today's readings speak of the gifts of prophesy and of casting out demons. If you feel that God is calling you with the gift to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

Email: vocations@archtoronto.org

If you are interested in being part of a second team or have questions please contact Carmenza in the church office or Teresa Meffe at teresa.meffe@gmail.com.
