Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord - April 10th, 2022

When the hour came . . . (Luke 22:14)

Jesus knew he was entering into a sacred time. Everything he had said and done for three years was leading to the cross. But he also knew that many in Jerusalem would fail to recognize his arrival as their sacred time, as the hour of their salvation.

Today is the beginning of Holy Week. It's the beginning of our own sacred time. For the next seven days, Jesus will appear before us as the suffering Servant of the Lord. Each day we will hear another story that reveals the depth of his love for us. Each day we will see another facet of what it means that he is the Lamb of God who has come to take away our sins.

How will you hear these stories? As snippets of ancient history? As echoes of past religious education classes? Or as life-giving testimonies of a God who loved you—who loves you—enough to sacrifice his life for you?

All week long, you have a golden opportunity to ponder the deepest truths of our faith. And not just to ponder them, but to let the Spirit bring them to life for you. You have the opportunity not just to recall that Jesus died for your sins but to know that every sin you have ever committed can be wiped away. You have the opportunity not just to remember that God raised Jesus from the dead but to know that you are destined for eternal life with him.

The hour has come. Jesus is about to offer himself for you. Don't miss out on the grace of this sacred time. Try to carve out a few extra minutes for prayer each day. Or spend a little more time with the word of God. Or just gaze at the cross a little longer. Let the love that Jesus has for you fill your heart and heal your soul.

"Holy Spirit, let the grace of this Holy Week change my heart."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Blessed are they who come in the Name of the Lord! Am I being called to proclaim Jesus as a priest, deacon, religious brother or sister? If God is calling you, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997. www.vocationstoronto.ca
