*... the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven
from God.
(Revelation 21:10)*

Radiant heavenly cities. Countless angels and saints worshipping. Mysterious scrolls and the occasional bizarre "living creature" (Revelation 4:8, 9). We've been reading from the Book of Revelation every Sunday since Easter. Some of its images are inspirational while others might leave us scratching our heads. And that's okay. Because as apocalyptic literature, Revelation is not meant to be interpreted literally; its symbolism is meant to give us a vision of God's plan coming to fulfillment.

For example, in today's reading, "the holy city Jerusalem" descends from heaven (Revelation 21:10). Gleaming like a jewel, it is protected by a high wall with twelve gates bearing the names of the tribes of Israel, and twelve foundation stones bearing the names of the apostles. God himself is its Temple and its light.

Using images like these, John is giving us a sense of the glory that we'll experience in heaven. But he's also showing us the Church, the bride of Christ that we are part of even today (see Revelation 21:9). Redeemed by Jesus, this Church is beautiful. It is holy, set apart for God. It is built on the foundation of the apostles and God's chosen people. And as we gather as his Church, we become that radiant bride, shining with the brightness of his love. It's glorious!

The truth is, we're not fully there. At least not yet. But let John's images lift your heart and fill you with hope. Let them inspire both gratitude and intercession in you. Gratitude for God's promise of heavenly glory. And intercession that this promise will be fulfilled in your own life and in the lives of all your brothers and sisters in Christ.

"Jesus, thank you for the glory of your Church. Help each of us come closer to that glory today!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him and we will come to Him. How will I respond to that love? Am I being called to the priesthood, diaconate or religious life? If God is calling you, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997. www.vocationstoronto.ca

Faith: The Next Generation – Pass It Forward!
Catechists

Over 350 children from Grades 2 and 7 will sign up this spring to learn more about Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith. With 12 Communion Classes and 8 Confirmation classes offered on Tuesday evenings, spread out between September and April, you are almost sure to find the time to fit this in your schedule. As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, “I learn so much from the children!” We provide you with training, materials, and support.

If interested, contact Anna at mbetro@archtoronto.org and she will be happy to meet with you in person to answer any questions, you may have. Whether you are retired, interested in a career in teaching, or just sharing your faith, this will be a very rewarding and spiritual experience. This experience is eligible for community/placement hours.

VOLUNTEERS for the Youth-Formation-Sacramental Preparation Programs

We are always looking for talented high school teens, young adults, parents and grandparents, single or married, to serve in the above programs. We believe that a solid ministry is built on faith and relationships: between Jesus Christ, our volunteers, and our youth. Contact Anna at mbetro@archtoronto.org if interested. This is also a great way to get community hours.

Requesting the Sacraments, Baptism Children (ages 4-7)
First Communion & Confirmation:

For 2022/2023 registrations opens May 1, 2022 and closes on August 30, 2022.

In order to deal with the backlog for our parishioners, we strongly recommend that:

- Parents of children who are candidates for First Communion/Reconciliation in Grades 3 and up and Confirmation in Grades 8 and up register their children in May 2022.
- Parents of children who are candidates for First Communion/Reconciliation and Confirmation who will be in Grade 2 or 7 in September 2022 register their children in June 2022 and July 2022.

This first step of registration requires that parents register their children by emailing the names of their children along with the Sacrament they are requesting to mbetro@archtoronto.org. Registration closes August 30.
