Feast of the Transfiguration of our Lord August 6th, 2023

Lord, it is good that we are here. (Matthew 17:4)

Peter, James, and John must have wondered why Jesus called them aside and led them up that mountain. Did he have an important teaching to give them? An exciting mission? A special blessing? Jesus gave them all of this—and so much more. At his transfiguration, he offered these three eyewitnesses a revelation of who he is: the Son of God (Matthew 17:5). He gave them a glimpse of his glory.

We can hardly fault them for their stunned silence. Only Peter could find words to respond to Jesus' glorious appearance—and his desire to build tents for Jesus, Moses, and Elijah only demonstrated just how little he understood (Matthew 17:4)! Peter was just beginning to see that Jesus was no ordinary teacher. He was beginning to see that Jesus was the Lord, the God of Moses and Elijah, the God of the Law and the Prophets. And what he saw filled his heart with joy. So he said, "Lord, it is good that we are here" (17:4).

It is good to be with the Lord! It's what we were created for. Whether we realize it or not, our hearts long for God and an awareness of his presence. He is our greatest good! And Jesus longs to reveal that goodness to us even more than we long to know him. That's why he took on flesh and became a man. That's why he poured out his Holy Spirit. And that's why he is truly and fully present in the Eucharist at every Mass.

Today, Jesus wants to give you a glimpse of his glory. He wants to assure you that he is the Lord: alive, powerful, and close to you. Jesus invites you to lift your eyes and your heart toward heaven and ask the Spirit to give you spiritual eyes to see him. So as the priest holds up the Host and Precious Blood at Mass today, you can proclaim in faith with Peter . . .

"Lord, it is good that I am here with you!"

Fr. Andrzej's Birthday on August 23rd

Father Andrzej will celebrate his 73rd birthday this month on Wednesday, August 23rd. We would like to extend our best wishes to Father on behalf of the staff, clergy and all our parishioners. Happy Birthday and Blessings to you, Father Andrzej Glaba! Through Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Please join us on August 15 as we celebrate the feast of the Assumption of Mary. We will gather for the liturgy of the Word and to recite the Rosary in front of the church at 7:30 pm. Come and bring a friend!

The Power of the Holy Word of God is the topic for August on radiomaria.ca. Join parishioners Mariangela & Nick for Jesus with Us: Reflections of Joy every Thursday at 9 pm, Saturday at 2 pm

This month they discuss the power of the Holy Word of God, the importance of words and what is said and not said. They also look at some words and verses Jesus proclaimed and explain the importance of communication and the best words to use. Through prayers, reflections and the use of positive words, we see how we can transform our lives, allow God's Word to live within us and become closer to God.
