Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God. (Matthew 22:21)

In first-century Palestine, taxes were a painful reminder that God's people were living under the oppressive rule of a foreign power. So when the Pharisees "plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech" (Matthew 22:15), the hot-button topic of taxation seemed like a clever strategy. If Jesus supported paying taxes, he would come across as disloyal to the Jews. If he opposed it, he could be accused of rebelling against Rome.

Jesus' reply makes an important point for both first-century Jews and for us today: we can, and should, meet both our civic and religious obligations. What "belongs to Caesar" (Matthew 22:21)? In other words, what are our civic duties? According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "It is the duty of citizens to contribute . . . to the good of society in a spirit of truth, justice, solidarity, and freedom" (2239). This includes a moral obligation "to pay taxes, to exercise the right to vote, and to defend one's country" (2240).

What about our religious obligations? What exactly "belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21)? Our entire selves! Regardless of nationality or citizenship, we are all made in the image of the living God (Genesis 1:26-27). So while we pay our taxes and cast our vote to fulfill our political obligations, we give to God what belongs to him—and that involves the surrender of our entire lives.

Participating wholeheartedly at Mass is a wonderful way to offer to God what belongs to him. Today, as you set aside other activities to listen to the word of God and receive Jesus in the Eucharist, reflect on what he has given you. Then invite him to show you how to surrender to him even more—of your time, treasure, dreams, and of all the people you hold dear.

"Lord, I entrust my whole life to you."

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
October 21 & 22

Today, there will be a second collection for the Evangelization of the Nations, otherwise known as World Mission Sunday. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary church, and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic Communities globally. Offerings are combined with offerings from other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share from our abundance with those less fortunate who lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise God. Thank you for your support of this important work.

The registry of all deceased parishioners will be carried in procession and placed in a special location where it will remain for the entire month.

Writing the Names of Loved Ones:

It is our tradition to write the names of the faithful departed and have them placed in the proximity of the Altar during the month of November. You may use any piece of paper you wish, or the envelope in your envelope boxes, or the All Souls envelopes set out for you in the foyer. You may place these cards or envelopes with names in any collection basket over the next few weeks or drop them off in the office.

A Grateful Heart

is the topic for October on

radiomaria.ca

Join parishioners Mariangela & Nick for Jesus with Us: Reflections of Joy every Thursday at 9pm and Saturday at 2pm

What does it mean to have a grateful heart? Join us as we try to answer this question. Praising God and focusing on His many blessings and graces is one way that leads us to be forever thankful. We look at what affects our gratitude and also touch on the meaning of the Eucharist which is thanksgiving. Through prayers, reflections and the use of power words, we see the many ways to be grateful.
