Remember "All Saints' Parish" In Your Will

3rd Sunday of Easter April 14th, 2024

*He opened their minds.
(Luke 24:45)*

What a traumatic three days the disciples had just been through—from the Last Supper through Gethsemane, Judas' betrayal, Jesus' arrest, and Peter's denial, all the way up to Jesus' crucifixion! Everything they had staked their lives on had fallen to pieces—and they themselves had failed Jesus completely.

So it's no wonder that Jesus' first words when he appeared to the disciples were "Peace be with you" (Luke 24:36). How they needed that peace! Then, just as he had done for the disciples on the road to Emmaus, he "opened their minds" to help them make sense of all they had just been through (24:45). Walking them through the Scriptures, he showed them how his death had been part of God's plan all along. He helped them see that it was not a tragedy but a triumph. It was not the end of all their hopes but the beginning of a glorious new future.

Have you ever felt the way the disciples did? Maybe you're in the midst of a painful situation right now that has you feeling confused, betrayed, or lost. Maybe a traumatic experience in the past still haunts you. Or maybe the guilt of some past sin continues to weigh you down.

Whatever your situation, Jesus longs to do for you what he did for his disciples. He longs to open your mind to his mercy so that you can be set free from guilt or shame. He longs to reveal his love so that you can see your past—especially the painful parts—through his eyes of love and compassion. He longs to give you new insight into his wisdom so that you can look to your future with hope and trust.

Quiet your heart today so that you can hear Jesus speak to you. Let him "open your mind" and show you how he looks at you. Let him give you his peace.

"Jesus, help me to see with your eyes, to hear with your ears, and to love with your heart."

Volunteer Appreciation 2024

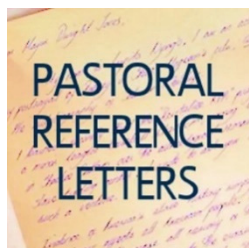

The Archdiocese

We would like to invite our parishioners to the Collective Memorial Masses on the Last Friday of the month at 7 p.m. on the following dates: April 26, May 31, June 28, September 27, October 25 and November 29, 2024. To register the names of your loved ones, please send us an email or contact our office a week before the Mass date.

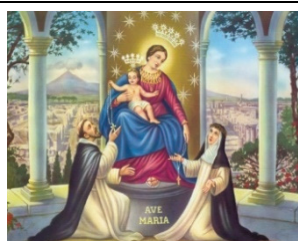

PASTORAL REFERENCE LETTERS

To Whom it May Concern, frequently there are requests for Pastoral Reference Letters from people who are seeking teaching positions within the Catholic school system.

Because of the seriousness of these requests and the rightful expectations of both the parents and the Church, those planning to teach in our Catholic schools should be believers who are genuinely trying to practice and live their faith. Therefore, this would include to be a registered member of All Saints' Parish for at least 6 months before meeting with the Pastor.

Please check our website for more information

<https://allsaintset.archtoronto.org/en/parish-life/pastoral-reference-letters/> or contact the office.

What could convince someone to turn to God? The story that God became human? The story that Jesus cured the sick?

The story that Jesus forgave sin? The story that Jesus rose from the dead? Or, perhaps, the story of the witness of your own life! If you have the continuing inclination that God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997. Email: vocations@archtoronto.org or visit www.vocationstoronto.ca
