“These people honor me

22nd Sunday
in Ordinary Time
September
1st, 2024

Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders? (Mark 7:5)

If a little is good, wouldn't more be better? That seems to be the underlying logic of the Pharisees and scribes in today's Gospel reading. They saw the purity rules from the Law of Moses as a good thing—and they were. These rules set God's people apart among the nations and were meant to form his own character in them (see Deuteronomy 4:1, 6-7).

But the thirst for “more” of a good thing led to the addition of extra rituals for washing and purification over the centuries. And by the time these Pharisees confronted Jesus about his disciples' behavior, they were trying to uphold countless detailed but unwritten customs that were considered by some to be just as binding as the Mosaic law.

In the end, these attempts to revere God turned into what Jesus called “cling[ing] to human tradition” (Mark 7:8). The extra practices, though well-intentioned, focused attention in the wrong direction.

Jesus' response gets to the heart of the matter—our hearts! What we eat or how we wash our hands doesn't make us unclean. We defile ourselves by our thoughts, words, and actions that spring from within us (Mark 7:23). Growing in purity and godliness starts in our hearts and moves into our words and actions from there.

That means that the answer to your thirst for holiness isn't about adding more “rules” to help you become even more pure. It's asking yourself questions like “What's going on in my heart? What's motivating me?” If you see sinful attitudes, repent. Let the Lord uproot them and replace them with his own thoughts and desires. Then receive God's power to change as you set your heart on loving him and loving the people he's put into your life. That's how you can get more of a good thing as you seek to follow God's laws.

“Lord, help me to follow you with all of my heart!”

Answer the call to compassion

100,000 people in Toronto are expected to turn to food charities for the first time in 2024. Through our parish's support, ShareLife, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Toronto, and a generous anonymous donor are committing $750,000 to fund food banks and meal programs throughout the Archdiocese. Reaching our parish campaign goal will help to make these grants possible. We have currently raised $130,000.00 towards our suggested goal of $158,000.00. Please help combat hunger at sharelife.org/donate or by giving at our parish using a ShareLife envelope. Thank you for your compassion.
