31st Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 3rd, 2024

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart.
 (Mark 12:30)

Higher-end cameras have a setting called “portrait mode,” which focuses only on the face of the individual you are trying to capture while blurring out everything in the background. In today’s Gospel, Jesus congratulates a scribe who has come to see God in this way. The scribe understands that loving God and his people is the most important thing he can do. Everything else is background—not erased, of course, but secondary when compared to the main picture!

You can probably recall times when you have lost your focus on the Lord. Maybe your gaze was fixed on a new car or some other pricey object you wanted to buy. Perhaps duties and deadlines pulled your vision away. Or maybe there have been times when you approached your spiritual life as routine and focused on secondary tasks and needs instead. This doesn’t usually happen all at once, and sometimes we aren’t even aware that it has happened until some challenge wakes us up to our predicament.

So how can we keep our focus on the Lord as this scribe did? How can we make sure that we are placing a priority on loving him? We can remember to dedicate even the ordinary parts of our days to the Lord. We can make a morning offering to him every day when we wake up and try lifting up some spontaneous prayers at different times during the day. We can invite the Lord into a stressful meeting, look for him in our fellow commuters, or pause to acknowledge the Holy Spirit at the kitchen sink.

Loving God with all our hearts doesn’t have to be an intense, all-day prayer marathon. Sometimes all it takes is a glance toward heaven to refocus our hearts on him. The more you do this, the more you’ll find your preoccupations and worries fading into the background—and Jesus, your loving Savior, filling your heart and your vision!

“Jesus, draw my eyes to you more and more as I offer you this day and all that it brings!”
 (Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Please join us here at All Saints for more learning about Palliative Care: The deVeber Institute for Bioethics presents
Palliative Care: The Better Choice

In-person lecture presented by Dr. Paul Zeni and Bob Parke, Bioethicist. Saturday, November 23, 2024, 10:30AM – 12:00PM. Register at deveber.org or email bioethics@deveber.org, after weekend Masses starting Nov 9th, or from the office. No fee. Speaking from a medical and bioethics perspective, Dr. Paul Zeni and Bob Parke discuss the many strengths of palliative care including opportunity for legacy, individualized support, and grief counseling. Dr. Zeni contrasts the broad scope of palliative care potential against the real side of MAiD - what MAiD doesn't provide. Parke highlights the importance of advance care planning as the gift you give yourself, your loved ones, and the healthcare team.
