“A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit.”

-Luke 6:43

8th Sunday in Ordinary Time March 2nd, 2025

The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had. (Sirach 27:6)

A tree is meant to bear fruit. But as Sirach reminds us, the quantity and quality of the fruit are determined by the way the tree has been cared for. What kinds of nutrients have fed its roots? How much light has shone down upon its leaves?

Jesus’ words in today’s Gospel echo Sirach’s observations. Like the Old Testament sage, Jesus tells his disciples that “every tree is known by its own fruit” (Luke 6:44). But he also says, “A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good” (6:45). That means what you put into the “storehouse” of your heart and mind—what you take in to nourish yourself—eventually flows out from you, for better or worse.

You might ask yourself, How can I fill the storehouse of my heart with good? How can I nourish and cultivate myself so that I can bear the good fruit I was created to bear?

There are some obvious answers to these questions. Regular prayer can help you set down deep roots in the Lord. Committing Scripture to memory can create an environment of grace and faith that will help you produce good fruit.

But there is another not-so-obvious answer: your relationships with other brothers and sisters in Christ. People who share your faith can be a great help in nourishing your heart. Sisters and brothers with whom you can pray can lift you up. People whom you can join in serving the less fortunate can help you bear the fruit of compassion. Friends who speak words of blessing and encouragement can help you steer clear of gossip, resentment, or bitterness.

Above all, never forget God’s grace. It’s God himself who created you to bear good fruit. He wants to fill you and enable your words to reveal his goodness and love, and he wants to use your friends to help you!

“Lord, help me bear good fruit!”

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

Abstinence and Fasting are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday

Abstinence is to be observed on all Fridays through the year, but Catholics may substitute this practice with special acts of charity or piety on the other Fridays— it remains to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Abstinence refrains from consumption of meat. This law pertains to everyone over fourteen years of age.

Fasting prescribes that only one meal be taken in a day, but it does not forbid taking more nourishment in the morning and in the evening, according to the needs of each individual. Fasting binds those between eighteen and sixty years of age. Individual cases, for just reason (e.g., the sick), receive dispensation from the obligation.
