Divine
Mercy
Sunday
April 27th, 2025

*Do not be afraid.
(Revelation 1:17)*

Anyone would have been afraid! Most Jews believed that if they saw the glory of God face-to-face, they would die. This explains why St. John, who wrote the Book of Revelation, collapsed to the ground when he was brought into the presence of the “one like a son of man” (Revelation 1:13). Even John, who had walked with Jesus, witnessed his transfiguration, laid his head on Jesus’ breast, and watched as he ascended to heaven, was overwhelmed!

Jesus’ response to John is perfect for today’s celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday: “Do not be afraid” (Revelation 1:17). He didn’t tell John that there was no reason to fear; he touched him, offered a word of encouragement, and raised him up. That expression of love and intimacy overcame John’s fears and enabled him to stand before his glorious Lord. That’s what mercy is all about! It’s the perfect love of God, which “drives out fear” (1 John 4:18).

This is the same mercy Jesus showed to Thomas in today’s Gospel. Thomas doubted the resurrection because he hadn’t seen it with his own eyes. But Jesus came and invited Thomas to touch his wounds and “believe” (John 20:27). Like John, Thomas experienced a mercy that saw his unworthiness and still drew him close.

We can experience that mercy, too. Jesus knows that in the light of his glory, we are all frail and flawed. He knows that in the light of his truth, we often doubt and distrust. He knows we are not worthy to come to him on our own merits. Yet in his power and holiness and glory, he is patient with us. As he did for Thomas, he sees our weakness and shores up our faith. As he did for John, he calms our fearful hearts and assures us of his love.

So don’t be afraid to come to Jesus today. Don’t be afraid to let him see you as you truly are. Come and hear him say, “Do not be afraid.”

“Jesus, thank you for the depths of your mercy!”
(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)
