The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Corpus Christi Sunday June 22nd, 2025

Five loaves and two fish are all we have. (Luke 9:13)

Today's feast of Corpus Christi gives us the opportunity to celebrate the abundant generosity of the Lord. Our Gospel reading tells us how Jesus fed the thousands who followed him by miraculously multiplying five loaves of bread and two fish. As wondrous as that miracle was, we see his generosity even more abundantly in his gift of the Eucharist. At every Mass throughout the world, Jesus becomes fully present: Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. As St. Carlos Acutis would say, "Jerusalem is right on our doorstep" in the Blessed Sacrament.

It takes faith to accept the truth of this profound miracle. But every now and then, God confirms our faith with a miracle, like the one he performed at St. Mary Parish in Chirattakonam, India, in April of 2001. During Adoration, three red stains appeared on the Host. Then, a few days later, the same Host bore the likeness of a human face. Responding to these events, the local archbishop, wrote, "For us believers, what we have seen is something that we have always believed." (A description of this, as well as many other Eucharistic miracles, can be found at carloacutis.com.)

Whether we experience a Eucharistic miracle or not, Jesus is still present at every Mass. Just as he multiplied the five loaves and two fishes that day, he takes something so small—a simple piece of bread—and transforms it into his very flesh, to feed his people.

Today, offer Jesus your very self. Yes, the little that you have to offer him is enough! Give him your worries, your cares, but also your blessings and gifts. Trust in his miracle-working love and power to do amazing things in and through you.

"Jesus, nothing is too small for you. I worship you in the Eucharist, and I offer you the little that I have. Come and work your wonders in me!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

Dear parishioners of All Saints' Parish: We have produced a weekly chart of local food banks within 10 km of our catchment area. This resource has been well received by the neighbours in need who we visit. We thought you might like to have access to it as well in case you are aware of someone who may benefit, but who is reluctant to ask the SSVP. It is also posted in our outside bulletin board, as well as on our parish website, and copies are available for pick up in our front and side entrances. Here is the link: PDF Local Food Banks 2025.pdf To contact SVDP: 416-244-3066 Ext. 6.
