22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time August 31st, 2025

When you hold a banquet, invite the poor. (Luke 14:13)

As you begin to read today's Gospel, you might wonder, "Is Jesus really offering advice on table manners and etiquette? Is he really telling me how to win people's esteem?"

But as you keep reading, you realize Jesus is after something else. He's not teaching you how to make friends and influence people; he's asking you to choose a life of humility and generosity—just as he did. Don't try to curry favor with the wealthy. Don't set yourself apart as someone special. Rather, get to know the "invisible people" who are usually left out. Care for the poor. Spend time with those who are disadvantaged. Learn their names and their stories.

In other words, Jesus is saying, Become like me. Imitate the One who humbly put aside his glory to live among us sinners (Philippians 2:6-7). Think of the time he spent with those who were "abandoned" (Matthew 9:36), how he joined them "at table" (9:10), and how he was not afraid to touch people who were sick and reviled (Luke 5:12-13; 7:38).

Above everything else, think of how he continues to humble himself at every Mass. Imagine: day in and day out, the all-holy Son of God generously makes himself present to the hundreds of millions who gather to worship him. In the Eucharistic gift of his Body and Blood, he gives himself to sinners, all of whom stand in need of salvation. No matter our situation, he offers each of us grace upon grace.

That's how Jesus wants us to live: in a spirit of humility and self-giving for anyone who is hurting in any way. And he asks us to do this, not on our own strength, but by drawing on the grace that he pours into us. So fix your eyes on Jesus, the humble One, today, and let him make you a little bit more like himself.

"Lord, give me a heart like yours—the heart of a servant!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

ShareLife

You're there for seniors in their time of need

Your support of ShareLife-funded agencies, like the Cardinal Ambrozic Houses of Providence, gives seniors, like John, a sense of belonging. As one of many valued residents who live with dementia, his cognitive impairment can leave him feeling vulnerable and confused. Your compassion makes it possible for him to be surrounded by both his family and caregivers in a comforting environment. John's son has fondly witnessed gestures that go above and beyond for his father, ensuring he's never left embarrassed. This is a testament to the dignity and life-affirming respect you help provide. We have currently raised $133,728.50 towards our suggested goal of $158,000.00. Please help combat hunger at sharelife.org/donate or by giving at our parish using a ShareLife envelope. Thank you for your compassion.

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul: Dear parishioners of All Saints' Parish: We have produced a weekly chart of local food banks within 10 km of our catchment area. This resource has been well received by the neighbours in need who we visit. We thought you might like to have access to it as well in case you are aware of someone who may benefit, but who is reluctant to ask the SSVP. It is also posted in our outside bulletin board, as well as on our parish website, and copies are available for pick up in our front and side entrances. Here is the link: Local Food Banks JULY 2 2025.pdf To contact All Saints Church - St. Vincent De Paul, please call 416-244-3066 Ext. 6.
