23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time September 7th, 2025

... that you might have him back forever;

no longer as a slave but . . . a brother. (Philemon 15-16)

Despite being one of the shortest books in the Bible, St. Paul's Letter to Philemon still reveals the power of the gospel to change us. It had changed Paul so much that he viewed a runaway, criminal slave, Onesimus, as his own spiritual son, and it had changed this slave so much that he viewed himself as a beloved, forgiven man. Now Paul is inviting Onesimus' owner, Philemon, to let the gospel change him.

While he was in prison, Paul evangelized Onesimus, who had run away from his owner and had come seeking Paul's help. As they grew close, Paul came to view Onesimus as his spiritual "child" (Philemon 10). But he didn't stop there. In today's reading, Paul pleads with Onesimus' owner, Philemon, to take him back.

Paul's letter is clever and inviting but also direct. He says he could command Philemon based on his authority as an apostle, but he chooses a different tone: "I rather urge you out of love," he writes (Philemon 9). He begs Philemon to see the spiritual reality of the situation, not just the legal reality. "Perhaps this is why he was away from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a brother" (15-16).

This letter shows that the gospel is not just good news that announces our salvation—it changes us. Just as it did for Onesimus and Paul (and, hopefully, for Philemon), it lifts our hearts, it reconciles broken relationships, and it changes the way we treat one another.

During this Jubilee Year, let's invite the Holy Spirit to show us how we can be transformed by the power of the gospel. Perhaps there is someone he will help you see differently—a boss, a family member, maybe even yourself!

"Thank you, Holy Spirit, for setting us free to see ourselves and others as you do."

Dear parishioners of All Saints:

The time has finally come when I must step back from active ministry. It's definitely not something I want to do. It's something I have to do because of my physical condition.

It was in June 1977 that Bishop Fulton assigned me to live here at All Saints while I undertook particular tasks in the Archdiocese. Over these many years, All Saints has provided me, not only with a ministry base, but also with a family. I will miss you. I want you to know that as parishes go, All Saints is special in many ways. You make it so.

I'm planning to move into a retirement home in Scarborough owned and operated by an amalgam of religious communities of both men and women, the Basilian Fathers, the Sisters of Loretto, the Scarborough Foreign Mission Society and others. I'll be in good company. So, thank you my dear friends. I ask God to bless you all. Please keep me in your prayers.

Fr. Paul Begin.

Bible Study group:

Do you want to go more deeply into the scriptures and to connect meaningfully with some of your fellow Catholics? The All Saints Bible Study will be starting up again in September with a new program and this would be a good time to join us. We meet every Tuesday evening on Zoom, with occasional in-person get togethers. We follow Catholic bible study courses with a video component; a personal study book and we always have time to discuss with each other what we have heard. If you feel this might be for you, contact Lucy Furbacher email lucyfurb@hotmail.com or tel. 416-819-2508, or Teresa Meffe teresa.meffe@gmail.com for more details.

You're there for seniors in their time of need

Your support of ShareLife-funded agencies, like the Cardinal Ambrozic Houses of Providence, gives seniors, like John, a sense of belonging. As one of many valued residents who live with dementia, his cognitive impairment can leave him feeling vulnerable and confused. Your compassion makes it possible for him to be surrounded by both his family and caregivers in a comforting environment. John's son has fondly witnessed gestures that go above and beyond for his father, ensuring he's never left embarrassed. This is a testament to the dignity and life-affirming respect you help provide. We have currently raised $133,728.50 towards our suggested goal of $158,000.00. Please help combat hunger at sharelife.org/donate or by giving at our parish using a ShareLife envelope. Thank you for your compassion.
