No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
LUKE 16:13 (KJV)

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 21st, 2025

No servant can serve two masters. (Luke 16:13)

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of a steward who had authority over all the resources of his master. However, he used his master's wealth and power to serve his own self-interest. When his master discovered he was squandering his property, he promptly fired the servant. His future uncertain, the servant reduced the debts owed to his master to secure favor for himself with the debtors. Although Jesus commends the steward for behaving prudently, he also tells his disciples, "You cannot serve both God and mammon" (Luke 16:13).

Jesus is clear: we can serve only God or wealth, and whichever one we choose has authority over us, for good or for ill. So how can we know which "master" we are serving?

Imagine a magnificent royal throne. It might be solid gold, encrusted with rubies, or ornately carved from beautiful oak. That throne represents authority and influence; it is the seat of power from which a king rules over his servants. So in this analogy, the "throne" represents the seat of authority over our hearts, and we can choose who will sit on that throne and reign over us. To whom will we give first place?

When our primary desires are for more money or greater worldly success and recognition, we have placed some form of "mammon" on the throne. And what fruit does that bear? Only the desire for more. We feel restless, envious, and burdened. However, when we give God first place in our hearts, everything else falls into place, and we experience peace, contentment, and a desire to serve him and our neighbor.

What an obvious choice: Jesus is not a belittling master! Rather than demanding that we place him on the throne, he offers us an invitation. Whom will you serve today?

So what can you remove from the throne of your heart to make room for Jesus?

"Lord, help me to pursue you above all else today."
(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

From the heart of the Church – Food Security Grants to fight hunger

As food insecurity worsens across the GTA, ShareLife, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Toronto (CCAT), and two generous anonymous donors, have pledged a combined $800,000 in Food Security Grants for 2025 - building on previous commitments of $500,000 in 2023 and $750,000 in 2024. Living the Gospel means caring for those who are hungry and vulnerable every single day. We thank you for your kindness and generosity. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate. Our parishioners have contributed $140,655.00 toward our goal of $161,000.00.

ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO SAINT MICHAEL AWARD

This award is granted to individuals who have been nominated by the pastor of their parish for their profound witness and generous service. There is one recipient for each pastoral region of the Archdiocese - four in total. The 2025 recipients will be honoured as part of a special celebration at the Noon Mass on Sunday September 28th, 2025 at Saint Michaels's Basilica. His Eminence Cardinal Leo will be celebrating the Mass and awarding these individuals. We are delighted and very proud to announce that one of our parishioners, who is so deserving of this award, has been nominated and selected: Frank Maccarone, Vice Chair of Parish Council, Chair & Founder of Cooking for Kids, Knight of Columbus and the list goes on is our parish's recipient of this prestigious award. What a joy and honour to have Frank nominated and selected. He has so lovingly served our community with great joy, humility and fidelity over many years.
