26th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 28th, 2025

*They have Moses and the prophets.
(Luke 16:29)*

Jesus draws a stark contrast in today's Gospel between a man who enjoyed his riches but had no concern for others and a poor man, Lazarus, whose life was filled with poverty, suffering, and humiliation. When the rich man died, he was condemned to the "torment" of "flames" in the underworld (Luke 16:24). Lazarus, however, rested peacefully in "the bosom of Abraham" after he passed away (16:22). When the rich man begged Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his brothers about what awaited them, Abraham dismissed his request. "They have Moses and the prophets," he said. "Let them listen to them" (16:29).

Moses and the prophets. That's shorthand for the word of God. It's also a very revealing statement. This parable is not just about the dangers of ignoring the suffering of the poor. It's also about the importance and power of Scripture. It's even more powerful than being visited by someone who has been raised from the dead!

This is a troubling story, but it's also filled with promise. Jesus is telling us that the word of God can change even the hardest of hearts. Through the commandments God gave to Moses, he told us to be kind and generous toward those in need. And through the words of the prophets, he revealed his own heart for those who are vulnerable and neglected. Now he tells us that if we sit with these words and let them sink into our hearts, his Spirit will draw us out of our own selfishness. He will help us reach out of ourselves and share his love and generosity with anyone who is hurting.

What is Jesus saying to you today? Is there a word or phrase from one of today's Mass readings that is standing out to you? Take that word and ponder it, even if you're not sure what has drawn you to it. Be patient. Be open. Let almighty God speak to you.

"Lord, open my ears to your word! Open my heart to your call!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)
