Commemoration of the Faithful Departed All Souls Day November 2nd, 2025

This is the will of the one who sent me. (John 6:39)

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us it's his Father's will that "everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life" (John 6:40). Everyone who believes in Jesus! God the Father, who created us in love, wants us to experience his love forever. He deeply desires that everyone be saved. Today, on All Souls' Day, the whole Church prays in accord with the expressed will of God: that all the souls in purgatory will see Jesus and finally be received into the perfect joy of heaven. How much hope this can give us!

How encouraging, too, that our Father's mercy extends beyond our comprehension. He is so merciful that he even allows everyone who dies "in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified" to continue to undergo purification—all so that we can receive eternal life (Catechism, 1030)!

God wants us to have this hope of eternal life both for ourselves and for our loved ones. As St. Paul writes in our second reading, "Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit" (Romans 5:5). Our hope is rooted in our faith in a loving, merciful God. We know that Jesus died and rose for us so that everyone could be saved (5:10). So we trust in that same love and mercy for our loved ones, just as we do for ourselves.

As you pray for all the souls in purgatory at Mass today, ask God to fill you with hope. Let him remind you of his everlasting love for you and for all those who have already passed away. As the celebrant lifts up the host and chalice, thank God for sending Jesus so that "everyone" may see him and believe in him. He has promised to raise us "on the last day" (John 6:40)—and that's a promise we can put our faith in!

"Lord Jesus, Savior of the world, I place my hope in you!"
(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Red Wednesday – November 19, 2025

On Wednesday, November 19, 2025, Red Wednesday, an initiative of Aid to the Church in Need (ACN), will be observed. This global day of awareness and prayer highlights the persecution of Christians and reminds us that religious freedom is a human right. In the Archdiocese of Toronto, we will observe Red Wednesday with a Mass on November 19 at 5:30 p.m. at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica, where Bishop Boissonneau will preside. By attending the Mass, wearing red, or organizing local activities, you stand in solidarity with those who suffer for their faith. More info: www.acn-canada.org/rw. Or (416) 785-0498.
