Solemnity of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, King of the Universe Sunday, November 23rd, 2025

*Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.
(Luke 23:42)*

Every year on Holy Thursday, the king or queen of England distributes gifts to various men and women who have demonstrated "outstanding Christian service" by making a difference in the lives of their local communities.

This image of a good and generous king is appropriate today, even if it isn't Holy Thursday! That's because today marks one hundred years since Pope Pius XI established the feast of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today, instead of considering an earthly king, we turn our attention to the "King of kings and Lord of lords" (Revelation 19:16), whose "kingdom will have no end" (Nicene Creed).

Jesus, our King, came to give us greater gifts than any gift an earthly king could ever give. In today's Gospel, in fact, we see him giving the gift of eternal life to the "good thief" who is crucified next to him. Then, dying on the cross, he gave us the greatest gift: his own life for our salvation. And from that point on, he has been continuously offering us his love, mercy, and forgiveness. As Pope Pius XI proclaimed, Jesus came, "not to be ministered unto but to minister," and to give himself "as a model of humility" (Quas Primas, 20). What a wonderful King we have!

When the thief on the cross asked Jesus to remember him, Jesus promised, "Today you will be with me in Paradise" (Luke 23:43). Let's follow this man's example and honor our King by surrendering our lives to him. Let's open our hands and receive his overflowing gifts of mercy, love, and forgiveness. Most of all, let's praise our King for giving us the greatest gift of all: eternal life!

"Lord Jesus Christ, you are my King. I surrender my life to you."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)
