However, as it is written: "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him."

-1 Corinthians 2:9-

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time February 15th, 2026

What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, . . . God has revealed to us. (1 Corinthians 2:9, 10)

That's quite a bold statement! St. Paul is saying that, through Jesus' death and resurrection, the Holy Spirit has revealed something that no one had ever seen or heard of before. Paul calls that something "God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory" (1 Corinthians 2:7).

For our glory. That's not just a throwaway phrase. It's the actual revelation that God has made manifest: the promise that everyone who believes in Christ can be glorified, just as Jesus, "the Lord of glory," is now glorified (1 Corinthians 2:8)!

Sit with that truth for a moment. Prophets and kings from the past, great saints like Abraham, Isaiah, and Moses, all had amazing revelations about the Lord and his plans. But only now, after Jesus' resurrection, has our own resurrection become so clearly revealed!

It's easy to reduce the gospel to a message about right living and adherence to a moral code that we have to try hard to follow. It's easy to reduce it to a set of self-help principles that we can adopt. It's easy to reduce it to any number of things. But once you start hearing about God's plan "for our glory," you know that Jesus has done something for us that we could never do ourselves. His death defeated our death. And his resurrection has opened heaven—for all of us.

This is part of the "mysterious, hidden" plan that God has now revealed in Christ. Jesus, the risen and glorified Lord, is our true destiny. He has made us for heaven!

Today is the perfect day to ask the Holy Spirit to reveal this glorious plan to you a little more. Read today's second reading slowly and prayerfully. Let the words sink into your heart and fill you with hope. You were created for glory!

"Jesus, thank you for revealing your awesome hidden wisdom to me!"

Ash Wednesday – February 18:

Ash Wednesday Masses will be celebrated on February 18, 2026 at 8:15 am and at 7:00 pm Bilingual (English/Italian). FASTING AND

ABSTINENCE: Abstinence and Fasting are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Abstinence is to be observed on all Fridays through the year, but Catholics may substitute this practice with special acts of charity or piety on the other Fridays— it remains to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Abstinence refrains from consumption of meat. This law pertains to everyone over fourteen years of age.

Fasting prescribes that only one meal be taken in a day, but it does not forbid taking more nourishment in the morning and in the evening, according to the needs of each individual. Fasting binds those between eighteen and sixty years of age. Individual cases, for just reason (e.g., the sick), receive dispensation from the obligation.
