*Take my yoke upon you.
(Matthew 11:29)*

According to ancient tradition, observant Jews were encouraged to take up the “yoke of the Torah,” or the “yoke of the law of the Lord.” This meant placing their highest priority on study and contemplation of the Law. This practice of prayerful study was so wonderful that it was said that anyone who took it up would experience interior freedom from the yokes of oppression and worldly concerns. It’s just as the psalmist proclaimed, “The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul” (Psalm 19:8).

So when Jesus told his disciples to take his yoke upon them, they would have understood what he meant: Take up my teaching. Immerse yourself in my words. Let what I have taught you become your highest priority and greatest treasure. They would have also known why he said that his yoke is “easy” and his burden is “light”: anyone who takes up his yoke will find relief and “rest” from their other concerns and burdens (Matthew 11:30, 28).

We often think of a yoke as a burden: a heavy instrument that weighs us down and restricts our movement. We might even think this way about the practice of pondering Jesus’ teachings. But he promises the exact opposite: dwelling on his words in Scripture raises our hearts and minds to heaven. It opens us up to the presence of his Spirit, who wants to heal our wounds, strengthen our wills, and shape our desires. It helps us to understand that the life he calls us to is a joy and a privilege.

Jesus is a shepherd who wants only what is the best for us. His words are filled with wisdom and guidance. They have the power to shape our hearts and minds after his own image. So let’s study them. Let’s contemplate them. Let’s invite his Spirit into our hearts so that his yoke becomes easier and his burden lighter every day.

“Jesus, thank you for teaching me the way I should go!”

Please contact the office to book your Mass intentions.

A Note from Fr. Andrzej Glaba: Dear Parishioners of All Saints' Parish, I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for all that you have done for me over the past few weeks to make my transition to retirement a very special one. Celebrating with me my 50th anniversary of Ordination was a special and meant a lot. Coffee Sunday retirement events gave me the opportunity to say goodbye to many of you in person rather than in a letter or bulletin. That was too special for me! Finally, from the bottom of my heart, I want to thank you for the generous retirement gift that I received from the parishioners of All Saints! You remain in my prayer. God bless you all!
