Remember "All Saints' Parish" In Your Will.

Roman Catholic Episcopal Corporation for the Diocese of Toronto, in Canada for the benefit of All Saints' Parish

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 13th, 2026

*Remember your last days, set enmity
aside. (Sirach 28:6)*

You've probably heard it said that no one on their deathbed wishes that they had spent more time at work. No, they wish for more time with their loved ones or one more chance to reconcile with an estranged friend. So considering Sirach's sobering words from today's first reading, do you think that anyone on their deathbed would wish they had held just a few more grudges? Or that they had just one more chance to prove themselves right or someone else wrong? Of course not!

That's why this reading resonates with us: remember your last days; turn from enmity, anger, and faultfinding. Knowing that God has forgiven us should move us to be more forgiving toward one another. But when we refuse to show mercy, when we hold onto anger or vengeance, we are closing our eyes to the mercy God has shown us. The truth is, compared to the heavenly glory that God offers us, our grudges and resentments can appear as quite petty. So let's not nourish them. Let's not hang onto unforgiveness.

Sirach's warning may remind you of what the master in today's Gospel parable tells his unforgiving servant: "Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?" (Matthew 18:33). Jesus instructs us to mirror God's mercy and forgive one another not just seven times but "seventy-seven times" (18:22). In other words, without limit.

These are strong words. But if they make you feel discouraged, know that Jesus stands ready to give you the strength to forgive. He can release you from habits of resentment. He is offering you a life free from the negativity that brings you down. So turn to him today, and ask for his grace to open your heart in compassion. Receive his mercy, and go and show it to the people around you.

"Jesus, help me to forgive my brothers and sisters from the heart!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

I Consigli dei Padre Pio

Non posso, poi, affatto credere e quindi dispensarti dal meditare solo perché a te sembra di non ricavarne nulla. Il sacro dono dell'orazione, mia bouna figliuola, sta posto nella mano destra del Salvatore, ed a misura che tu sarai vuota di te stessa, cioè dell'amore del corpo e della tua propria volontà, e che ti andrai ben radicando nella santa umiltà, il Signore lo andrà comunicando al tuo cuore.
