Solemnity of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, King of the Universe Sunday, November 22nd, 2026

The last enemy to be destroyed is death. (1 Corinthians 15:26)

St. Paul makes a bold claim in today's second reading when he says that death is destined "to be destroyed" (1 Corinthians 15:26). That's because in Scripture and much of the ancient world, people saw death as far more than a biological process that brings an end to life. They saw it as a spiritual force, a power that no one could destroy. It had the final word over everyone. But for Paul, death didn't have the final word; Jesus did. Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, is the ultimate ruler over creation. Even death must submit to him!

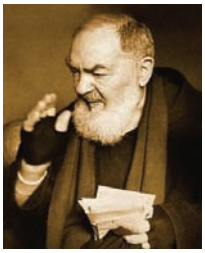

This bold claim of Paul's is the astounding truth that we celebrate today on the feast of Christ the King. We celebrate that Jesus' kingly authority extends over "every sovereignty and every authority and power" in heaven and on earth—including the power of death (1 Corinthians 15:24). And in his authority as King, he has "brought life and immortality to light" for everyone who believes and is baptized (2 Timothy 1:10).

What a cause for celebration! Everyone who comes under Jesus' mighty kingship is set free from the tyranny of death. They come to know it as no longer the "last enemy" but as the doorway to a new and imperishable life in the presence of the Lord (1 Corinthians 15:26).

So join in the great celebration today! In your prayer, proclaim that Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, has overcome death and every other spiritual enemy you will ever face! Sing to the glory of the One who has put an end to the reign of death. And in humility and gratitude, bow before Jesus, our conquering hero. Surrender to him, and let him reign over your life, just as he reigns over the whole of creation.

"Jesus, my King, Victor over death, come and reign in my heart!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

I Consigli dei Padre Pio:

Confortatevi poi, brava signora, confortatevi, poiché la mano del Signore a sorreggervi non si è abbreviata. Oh! sì, egli è il Padre di tutti, ma in modo singolarissimo egli lo è per gli infelici, ed in modo assai più singolare lo è per voi che siete vedova, e vedova madre.
