First Sunday of Advent, November 29th, 2026

You are not lacking in any spiritual gift. (1 Corinthians 1:7)

St. Paul sounds so very encouraging in today's second reading! He tells the believers in Corinth that they "are not lacking in any spiritual gift" as they look forward to "the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 1:7). Of course, Paul knew that the Corinthian church was straining under the weight of divisions and scandals (1:11). But he also knew that if he wanted to offer them any correction, it had to come within the context of God's faithfulness and love for them.

What a perfect message for us as we begin Advent! During these next four weeks, we may come up against our own weakness and sin as we prepare for the coming of the Lord in our hearts on Christmas Day. How good it is, then, to know that we have everything we need to overcome those weaknesses!

How can we make such a claim? Because when we were baptized, God "infused" us with three special gifts (Catechism, 1813):

- Faith, which helps us believe in the unseen God and in his nearness to us;
- Hope, which helps us trust in the promises of the Lord and gives us the strength to persevere; and
- Love, which helps us love the Lord and everyone around us—even the people we find it hard to love.

If you spend just a few minutes each day praying and contemplating Scripture this Advent, these gifts will grow in you. If you lean on them, even just a little bit, when you are challenged or tempted, you'll discover the power to say no to sin and yes to God. And if you try to lift your heart to Jesus a few times each day, you'll experience deeper joy and peace.

It's true: you "are not lacking in any spiritual gift." So take hold of them this Advent as you await "the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 1:7).

"Jesus, thank you for such awesome gifts! Help me be ready to welcome you at Christmas."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

I Consigli dei Padre Pio:

Ricordatevi che Dio è in noi, quando siamo in stato di grazia, e fuori, per così dire, di noi quando siamo in stato di peccato; ma il suo angelo non ci abbandona mai... È il nostro amico più sincero e sicuro, quando non abbiamo il torto di rattristarlo con la nostra cattiva condotta.
