The Saints?

Joining The Saints' is a wonderful way to continue the friendships made with classmates in elementary school and to be part of the All Saints' Community. Every night is a pizza night.

How does one join The Saints?

There is no formal registration and no cost to join. Email your intention to be part of the group to Anna at

1415allsaintsyouthministry@gmail.com

To learn more please contact Anna at the above email.

Whom is the Youth Group for?

It is open to all high school aged teens in public school, home schooled, in Catholic school. Your friends in University and college are also invited to be part of this group, if you wish.

Being part of this group does not require attendance at all nights. We realize that teens are busy with school and work!

Content

The Saints' provide an opportunity for teens to go deeper in their faith, share their faith with their peers through witness talks and interactive discussion.

Nights deal with specific "real world issues" that teens deal with every day. These nights help teens see how their Catholic faith is relevant to every aspect of their lives and how to deal with these issues.

Social Nights build Christian community and friendships.

The teens are invited to be part of our parish community and be involved in such events as Family Day, Bake Sales, play etc.
